The Monroe Doctrine

Down:

1. The Monroe Doctrine stated that European nations should not attempt further _____ in the Americas
2. A policy of not taking sides, which this doctrine reinforced for America
3. The region (North and South America) the doctrine aimed to protect
4. The continent whose powers were the target of the doctrine's warning
7. A policy of remaining apart from the affairs of other groups, especially political affairs
8. A government's strategy in dealing with other nations
10. The doctrine warned European powers against _____ in the affairs of new nations

Across:

5. The doctrine aimed to protect the independence and _____ of new Latin American nations
6. One of the European powers whose activities in the Northwest concerned the U.S.
9. The 5th U.S. President for whom the foreign policy is named
11. The region of newly independent countries the doctrine sought to protect
12. This European country, with its powerful navy, informally supported the doctrine
13. The Secretary of State who was the main author of the doctrine

Education.com

Build your own custom worksheet at education.com/worksheet-generator

© 2007 - 2025 Education.com