The Seneca Falls Convention

Down:

1. The document listing women's grievances and demanding equal rights
6. The movement to end slavery, which was closely linked to the early women's rights movement
7. The central idea and goal of the convention
10. The New York town where the first women's rights convention was held in 1848

Across:

2. The primary organizer of the convention and author of the Declaration of Sentiments
3. One of the key demands was for married women to have control over their own _____
4. A Quaker abolitionist and prominent advocate for women's rights who helped organize the convention
5. The famous abolitionist who attended and spoke in favor of women's suffrage
8. The specific location where the convention was held
9. A formal statement of opinion or intent voted on by a group
10. The right to vote, which was the most controversial demand of the convention
11. A complaint about an unfair condition, listed

Education.com

Build your own custom worksheet at education.com/worksheet-generator

© 2007 - 2025 Education.com