The Federalist Papers

Down:

1. An opponent of the Constitution, whom the essays were trying to persuade
3. A supporter of the new Constitution and a strong national government
5. The primary goal of these essays was to achieve the _____ of the Constitution
9. The collective pseudonym used by the three authors
10. He co-authored the essays and is known as the "Father of the Constitution"
12. The state where the essays were primarily published to sway public opinion

Across:

2. A principle defended in the essays to prevent tyranny
4. Madison's Federalist No. 10 argued that a large republic could control the effects of this
6. A system, supported in the essays, that prevents any one branch from becoming too powerful
7. He wrote five of the essays, focusing on foreign policy
8. The form of government advocated for in the essays
11. He wrote the majority of the 85 essays
13. A series of 85 articles arguing in favor of the Constitution

Education.com

Build your own custom worksheet at education.com/worksheet-generator

© 2007 - 2025 Education.com