The Fight for Independence: The Revolutionary War

Down:

1. Colonial militia known for being ready to fight at a moment's notice
2. A colonist who supported the cause of independence from Britain
3. Washington famously crossed the Delaware River to win this battle
5. The Commander-in-Chief of the Continental Army
7. Site of the Continental Army's brutal 1777-78 winter encampment

Across:

4. The French nobleman who became a trusted aide to Washington
6. The document adopted on July 4, 1776, proclaiming independence
8. British General who surrendered his army at Yorktown
9. A colonist who remained loyal to the British Crown
10. Town where the "shot heard 'round the world" was fired
11. Prussian officer who trained and disciplined the Continental Army
12. The final, decisive battle where the British army surrendered
13. This battle was the major turning point of the war

Education.com

Build your own custom worksheet at education.com/worksheet-generator

© 2007 - 2025 Education.com

Down:

Across:

14. German mercenaries hired by the British to fight the colonists

Education.com

Build your own custom worksheet at education.com/worksheet-generator

© 2007 - 2025 Education.com